TALL Founder, Demetra George Mustafoglu thanked the audience for attending and supporting TALL and the production of PERA PALAS and the Antaeus Company. Special thanks went to TALL liaisons Ilgin Gallo, Yasemin Ari and Cigdem Karadayi for their extra efforts.

PERA PALAS, a unique art form presenting three time periods overlapping on stage, is incredible theater. The cast bio sheets read like a who's who in American television and stage with credits like NYPD BLUE, JAG, ER, GREY'S ANATOMY, LAW & ORDER, SEINFELD, etc.

If you attend no other Turkish cultural event this season, attend this one. A wonderful idea would be a PERA PALAS Tour to spread the good word about Turkey and Antaeus!

Performances through August 28, 2005. Thursday - Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 and 7 p.m./ $30; Student, Senior and Group and Internet Discounts. Mention TALL.
