Suzy Williams, Nick Ariondo and Kahill Sabbath

Suzy Williams, Nick Ariondo and Kahill Sabbath, along with vibraphonist extraordinaire Sabbath, Ariondo and Williams perform original compositions and songs by Billie Holiday, Henry Mancini, Bessie Smith, Erik Satie, Billy Strayhorn, Charlie Parker, Jack Kerouac, Tom Waits, Astor Piazzolla, Hermeto Pascal, Edith Piaf, Kurt Weill and Langston Hughes, and much more. "Talk about a flammable mixture - Williams', boundless, Hell-Hath-No-Fury croonings combined with Ariondo's squeezebox virtuosity is not to be missed." -Eric Layton, Entertainment Today. Los Angeles Magazine proclaims "Suzy Williams and Nick Ariondo - He squeezes, she torches - for one night, all's well with the world." "Williams' energy must be seen to be believed... a natural performer." - Robert Palmer, The New York Times "Suzy's voice is vibrant and lusty... great gusto and bold emotion." - Nat Hentoff. The LA Weekly deemed Suzy Williams "LA's diva deluxe".

Theatre

Opens July 23 and runs through August 28, 2005
Pera Palas

Ten actors will play 27 roles — Turks, British and Americans — in this incisive, humorous and moving story set in Istanbul's palatial Pera Palas hotel in the West Coast premier of Sinan Ünel's "Pera Palas." Three 20th century periods of Turkish history are illuminated as hotel guests strive to keep up with the changing world around them. Interconnecting, intergenerational stories criss-cross these tumultuous periods in a country straddling Asia and Europe, Islam and Christianity, tradition and modernity.

"Pera Palas" was performed off-Broadway in 1999. This current exciting collaboration between The Theatre @ Boston Court and The Anteüs Company began when Anteüs decided to do a workshop of the piece more than two years ago and asked...
